Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, May 21, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

You can tell your dear children of heart, how much we appreciate their work. They put all their heart into it and we are pleased to note the impact of these messages on them. They know how to benefit from their very substance. They will be able to speak about them skilfully, without superfluous verbal impulses, without pompous comments, but only with knowledge acquired throughout this work and with grace that will be bestowed on them. These messages are given to be used when the moment has come. They exist and have a power unsuspected so far, which will be able to manifest itself effectively. They will have their own life that will always touch hearts. Erudite comments are not the most moving; truth opens doors, it lights the world and does not mislead those who receive it. It is a scarce commodity in this illusory world; it is making its way in the souls that are ready to receive it, to feed themselves with it and to rise with it. May your hearts not be flustered; only that which is true can remain in them, now that they are adorned with the divine hallmark.

"Remain surrendered, let faith and love be your torches. They will keep lighting you, [while] being maintained by the breath of the divine life which touched you very deeply, indelibly."
