Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, June 26, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Has all that we told you throughout these daily contacts not convinced you of our presence by your side? How must we express ourselves to reassure you and inform you of the events of this brief incarnation? Imagine you are travelling, having to carry out some amount of work required in your contract. Will your service record be satisfactory? The outcome depends only on you. Let yourself be carried away by the impulses of your heart, make sure they embellish your life, they can change the most insignificancy into a real ray of sunshine. Do not balk at an obstacle; you would reduce your strength. See how a restive horse can slow down its pace before an obstacle. It jeopardises all the efforts made previously; its behaviour severely harms the pursuit of success, which is the goal of its current condition.

"Do not get on your high horse because of this comparison with a horse specimen; the thoroughbred has reached a level where mistakes are no longer permitted.

"It must succeed; it has no option, on pain of falling back. It also, within its capabilities, is the master of its fate.

"We wanted to give a humorous twist to a teaching, presented from a different perspective, which shows the active part you have to take in your evolution."
