I have been waiting for this moment with impatience. I am fortunate to return to you by this means. From this position, I realize the tremendous achievement you are realizing in your work. While on Earth, my views were limited. I can now tell you the immense admiration that I have for you, and how fortunate I was to share your life. We built a family that is very dear to me as it is to you and, parallel to that, your spiritual dimension has completely opened out.

"You are doing the very thing that you came into the world for, which generates the admiration of your Beloved Master, and of all the hierarchy. You should know that you are doing the best. You must go on without weakening until the end of your mission.

"We are with you, our love carries you, and it should support you in all circumstances. When the load seems to you heavy, too heavy sometimes, and you are ready to give in, the flame flashes back in you, and you set out again regenerated. We like this capacity of recovery, which is in you. You are the admiration of your Master and of all.

"Be happy during this end of the century, and view only the success of the Mission and your own success. We are all delighted to tell you that with my voice. You are not alone. You are wrapped in a real armour of love, which protects you. This is the message that I have the joy to send you. I would like to still tell you a thousand other things, but you must feel them in your heart. We should not overburden [the medium]."

(Medium: Thank you, Sulochana, for choosing me as a medium and trusting me.)

"We also thank you for the happiness you give us."
