Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, July 23, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

The way of the heart is the same for all: more or less winding in its approach, but the end is the same. It is about taking a good step by wasting as little time as possible. You are experiencing our method and you are satisfied with it; you know the ingredients necessary for success. It is up to you to advance with discernment, to make choices, while keeping your priorities well in mind. Only you can make these choices; it is your life that is at stake. Your commitment implies our action in the general sense of the word. You are not advancing in isolation; you partake of a great movement, which is expanding on Earth. It is as yet only embryonic, compared to the very large audience it will have in the future. The spiritual aspiration of beings will grow more and more; they will look for means that are within their reach and suitable for their way of thinking and living. The simplicity of our practice will appeal to them; they will find in it beneficial nourishment fully in line with their expectation."
